Description

Situated in King's Lynn on Albion Street, this end-terrace house presents a opportunity for those looking for an ideal investment or renovation property. With a prime town centre location, residents will enjoy easy access to a variety of local amenities and excellent transport links, making commuting and exploring the area a breeze. The property has three bedrooms, including a unique loft conversion that adds character and versatility to the living space. The layout is arranged over three floors, providing ample room for family living or entertaining guests. The single reception room is spacious and will be the perfect room for relaxation or social gatherings. While the house requires a full refurbishment, this presents a blank canvas for buyers to personalise and modernise according to their tastes and preferences. Additionally, the property features a courtyard garden. In summary, this end-terrace house on Albion Street is a promising investment for those willing to undertake a refurbishment project. With its desirable location, spacious layout, and potential for transformation, it is an opportunity not to be missed.

Please be advised that the property is situated in close proximity to commercial premises, buyers are advised to conduct their own due diligence with regard to financing before bidding.
